WALT: begin to punctuate sentences using a question mark (?)

(Think, Pair, Share) Where do we need put a question mark and which one needs a question mark?

It is windy and cold today

Why is it raining

It is windy and cold today

Why is it raining

This statement needs a question mark because it is a question...it needs an answer.

Which one needs a question mark?

What would you like to do today

I would like to play outside

What would you like to do today

I would like to play outside

Which one needs a question mark?

What do you like to do at home

How are you

What do you like to do at home

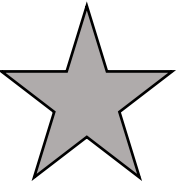

How are you

Activity — find your colour group and read the story. Find the question marks (print this page if you can)

WALT: identify questions marks

Chip had a net. He caught something in the net. 'What is it?' said Kipper. 'It is a crab' said Chip. Dad put it in the bucket. 'Will it nip?' said Biff. 'No' said Dad. They got lots of crabs. Kipper got a big crab. 'Will it nip?' said Kipper. 'No' said Dad. Kipper held the big crab. The other crabs got out. Did the big crab nip Kipper? No! it did not.

WALT: identify questions marks

Floppy barked. Floppy barked and barked. 'What is it?' said Biff. Biff looked. 'What is it?' she said. Wilf looked. 'What is it?' he said. 'What is it?' said Wilma. 'Is it a frog?' 'What is it?' said Chip. 'Is it a lizard?' Mum looked at it. 'What is it?' said the children. 'It's a salamander' said Mum. 'It's lost' she said. They took it to the Animal Rescue Centre. The salamander was safe.

WALT: identify questions marks

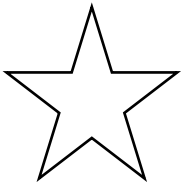

It was Kipper's birthday. Kipper wanted a party. 'Who would like to come?' he said. Everyone wanted to come. Biff put up balloons. 'Can I have a birthday cake?' said Kipper. 'Yes' said Mum. 'It is a chocolate birthday cake'. Dad took a sandwich. 'Stop it!' said Mum. 'Can I have a ham sandwich?' said Kipper. 'Yes' said Mum. Everyone came to the party. 'Can we play outside?' said the children. 'Yes' said Kipper. They played a game. The children played with bubbles. 'What a good party!' everyone said.

WALT: identify questions marks

Wilf's Dad wanted a party. 'Shall we put up some lights?' he said. 'That's a great idea' said Wilf. Wilma and Dad made a barbecue. 'Can I take the food outside?' said Wilf. 'Yes' said Mum. Everyone helped. The Dads lit the fire. The fire went out. 'Oh no have you got another match?' said Wilf's Dad. 'I've found one' said Wilf's Mum. The children were hungry. The Dad's lit the fire again. It began to rain. 'Can I have a burger?' said Chip. 'In a minute' said Mum. The children were fed up. The burgers burned. 'Yuk!' said Chip. 'Shall we go out for dinner instead?' said Wilf's Mum. 'Yes please' said Chip's Mum. 'Hooray!' said the children.

WALT: identify questions marks

The magic took them back in time. It took them to a busy town. 'There are no cars' said Chip. 'This must be a long time ago'. 'I know where we are' said Biff. 'We are in Paris. Look at all the flags.' Anneena was excited. 'We can go and see the Eiffel Tower' she said. The children looked for the Eiffel Tower but they couldn't find it. 'Are you sure this is Paris?' asked Chip. Nadim asked a policeman. 'Do you know where the Eiffel Tower is?' he asked. 'The Eiffel Tower!' said the policeman. 'There is no such thing'. Anneena asked a lady. 'Do you know where the Eiffel Tower is?' she asked. 'The Eiffel Tower!' said the lady. 'There is no such thing.' 'I know why we can't find the Eiffel Tower' said Biff. 'It hasn't been invented.' Just then they saw a man. He was pulling a cart. 'Will you help?' asked the man. 'I can't get the cart up this step.' The children helped the man pull the cart into a hall.

Plenary

Go and have a chat with someone in your family. Can you ask them a question?

For example: how are you? What are you doing? What is your favourite book?
