

Session One

Happy Monday 😊

Starter: Handwriting — practise your letter formation of 'p'

WALT: use the conjunctions 'and' 'or' 'but'

TPS: what does 'and' mean?
Can you give your friend an example?

We use 'and' to join two clauses together e.g.
He goes to the park and he goes to the cinema

We use 'and' to join two words together e.g.
Fish and chips

We use 'or' to join together choices e.g.

We are going to Spain or France next year.

Can you complete my sentence....

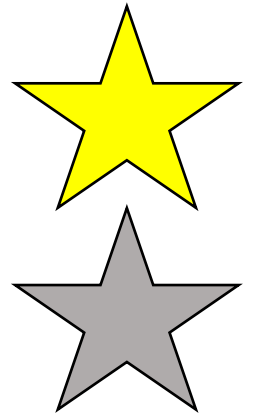

Would you like _____ or

_____?

We use 'but' to join together two opposite ideas
e.g. We wanted to go outside but it was snowing.
Look at this picture. Can you think of 'but' sentence for it?

Extra Activity — find your colour group, read the story and find the conjunctions.

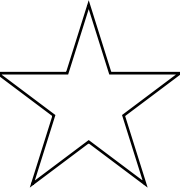

Floppy barked at a cat. The cat ran up a tree. Biff and Wilma were cross with Floppy. Wilma climbed on the wall. Wilma climbed up the tree and tried to get the cat. Wilma couldn't get down. Wilma's Dad was cross. He put the ladder up and Wilma climbed down. Wilma's Dad climbed the tree and tried to get the cat. Wilma's Dad was stuck and the cat jumped down.

Biff and Chip liked the new house. They helped Mum and Dad. Mum put wallpaper on the wall. Chip helped her. Dad painted a door. Biff helped him. Biff was in her room. Dad looked at the wallpaper. Biff wanted new wallpaper. Mum, Dad and Biff went to the wallpaper shop. Biff looked at the wallpaper. 'Would you like green wallpaper or blue wallpaper?' asked Mum. She liked the blue wallpaper. Mum and Dad pulled the wallpaper off. Biff and Chip helped. "What a job!" said Chip. Biff found a door, but the door was stuck. Mum opened the door. She found a room. Everyone looked inside. Mum went into the secret room. She found a little house. "It looks like our house", said Mum. Biff opened the door and everyone looked inside because they wanted to know what was inside the room.

Mum and Dad went camping. They took the children. They went to a farm. Mum and Dad had a new tent. They put it up. Wilf helped. Wilma got some water. "I like it here but I wish we could camp by the adventure playground because we could play on the swings" she said. Mr Jones was the farmer. He had to milk the cows. "Come and watch" he said. "What a lot of cows!" said Wilf. Mum bought some milk from the farmhouse. Mrs Jones was expecting a baby and she was expecting it soon. Dad cooked supper. "Would you like sausages or burgers?" he said. "Sausages please!" shouted the children. "I like it here" said Wilf. Everyone went to bed but there was a storm. 'Dad I can't sleep. I couldn't sleep when the wind started to sleep' shouted Wilma. Nobody could sleep. The wind blew and everyone had to get up. The wind blew the tent down. They had to go to the farmhouse. Mr Jones called Mum. "The baby is coming, you can come to the hospital if you get in the car now" he said. They got in the car. Mum helped Mrs Jones. The storm got worse. The wind blew and blew. The wind blew a big tree down.

Plenary

What goes in the middle of my sentence?

Would you like chicken ____ fish for dinner?
